Three More Automobile Driving Schools Closed

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—The State Motor Vehicle Bureau has announced three additional revocations and one suspension of automobile driving school licenses here.

Previously, 12 such schools were closed for alleged racketeering practices as the result of an investigation begun two years ago by Commissioner George M. Bragalin of the State Department of Taxation and Finance.

Bragalin, who announced the new actions yesterday, promised there would be "no letup until every last trace of these vicious practices is erased."

Bragalin listed the schools and individuals and their alleged offenses as follows:

Naguchi Auto School, 488 Claremont avenue, the Bronx, owned by Miguel A. Silva—license revoked "for employing unlicensed instructors, engaging in fraudulent practices, making false statements on applications for driving licenses and executing false contracts and records with students."

Israeli Not in Dispute With Egyptian People

The Israeli government has no quarrel with the Egyptian people, Rabbi Arthur Hertzberg, chairman of the National Education Committee, Zionist Organization of America, told a group of over 200 Kingston people Sunday evening at a "Prayer for Peace" meeting at Temple Emanuel.

Sponsored by the Kingston Jewish Community Council and the Congregations Agudas Achim, Ahavath Israel and Temple Emanuel, the service was followed by a question and answer session conducted under the chairmanship of Rabbi Bloom.

Rabbi Hertzberg, presented by Rabbi Jacob Rubenstein of Congregation Ahavath Israel, referred to Armistice Day, November 11, 1918, for which the League of Nations came into being after World War I.

"Today there is not a single consequence to World War I still alive," he said. Of countries given independence at the close of World War I, none of them "are really independent." Nothing remains of the treaties of the League which is secure and growing.

In the State of Israel, "the only bastion of democracy in the Middle East," the speaker said there remained "one glimmer."

The State of Israel has continued to extend the arm of friendship toward the United States and practice democracy in the American form, while Egypt has defied the rights of others and has the avowed purpose of destroying Israel. Israel is looking for peace and he called on all to dedicate themselves to justice, and the rights of the peoples of the world.

In his remarks Rabbi Hertzberg said in part: "We find ourselves met together as Jews and Children of God to help solve this crisis. It is necessary to rally worldwide, national and Jewish opinion in response to the crisis. Today, Armistice Day, it is significant that we are meeting on this date when we think back to November 11, 1918, for which the League of Nations came into being, new States were created and all kinds of treaties were enshrined as hostages to fortune. Today there is not a single consequence to World War I still alive. Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary, Austria and so forth, none are really independent. Nothing remains of the treaties or the League which is secure and growing. There remains but one glimmer. On November 2, 1917, the Balfour Declaration which stated that His Majesty's Government looks with favor upon the creation of a National Homeland in Palestine for the Jewish people. This remains in the State of Israel, the only bastion of Democracy in the Middle East."

College Head Doubts Federal Aid to Bring School Control

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—The president of a college which receives 35 per cent of its income from the federal government expressed doubt today that federal aid to public schools would mean federal control.

R. R. Renne of Montana State College, Bozeman, said that "not once in the 14 years I have been president has there been any suggestion as to what we teach or how we teach it."

T. R. Johnson, an administrative official at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., for 38 years, said his experience had been the same. About 15 per cent of Purdue's income is federal money.

Both men are attending the convention of the American Assn. of Laid-off Colleges and Universities, opening today.

The land-grant schools are so designated because under an 1862 act of Congress they received federal lands in return for offering courses in "agriculture and the mechanic arts." The association's 71 member institutions account for one fifth of American college students.

One of the arguments used by opponents of federal aid to public schools is that the federal government might determine what should and could be taught.

"The land-grant colleges don't see any reason to fear federal

Red Might Tightens By Minute Freedom Light Rapidly Dying

Vienna, Nov. 12 (AP)—The overwhelming power of Russia's huge military machine moved relentlessly today against the last pockets of Hungarian national resistance. Only a gallant last stand to the death remained of Hungary's electrifying bid for freedom from Communist tyranny.

The only major pocket of resistance left inside ruined Budapest was at Csepel Island, site of the nation's biggest industrial complex. Workers barricaded themselves in one of the big Danube island factories and continued to beat off determined attacks by Soviet armor.

Try to Hold On

Elsewhere in the country, rebel pockets still held out in the Budapest suburbs of Ujpest, in Dunapentele (Stalinvaros), south of the Csepel Island area, and at Pecs, near the Yugoslav border.

Occasional shooting also broke out in Gyder Province, especially along the roads leading to Austria, and in the Vac area north of Budapest.

The last-stand rebels also fought cold, hunger and even despair. The iron grip of the Russian colossus tightened by the minute, and virtually all Hungary was under its domination once again. The first light of freedom the Hungarians had glimpsed for 15 long years was rapidly dying out.

Sees End Coming

The puppet premier installed by the Russians, Janos Kadar, admitted in a speech over Budapest radio that groups of rebels still were holding out in cellars by day, emerging by night in larger groups for hit and run attacks. But he said he believed "all Budapest remnants of the counter revolution will be liquidated" in two or three days.

The Russians went about the liquidation just as systematically as they went about mowing down Hungarians throughout a week in which MIG fighters screamed overhead, flyshin (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Nationalist Chinese Plane Shot Down

Taipei, Nov. 12 (AP)—The Chinese Communists have shot down a Chinese Nationalist troop transport over the East China coast. Peiping radio said the bodies of nine Nationalist officers and enlisted men were recovered from the wreckage.

Nationalist air force headquarters said the two-engine C46 was dropping leaflets over Hangchow, 355 miles northwest of Formosa, when it was shot down by a Communist fighter.

The Nationalist defense ministry at first denied Peiping's report of the incident but later confirmed it.

Two Big Salvage Ships on Way

Hamburg, Germany, Nov. 12 (AP)—Two of the world's largest salvage ships, the Energie and Ausdauer, set off today for Port Said to help clear the Suez canal.

The 4,500-ton ships, each equipped with giant cranes and other repair devices, were taken under tow. The long trip to the Suez was expected to take about 20 days.

British, Dutch and Norwegian ships are expected to join in the giant repair job.

Mother and Five Children, Two Others Die in Flames

Cincinnati, Nov. 12 (AP)—Fire swept upward from a basement stair well through a three-story apartment here early today, killing eight persons, seven of them children. Three other persons were hurt as they leaped from the burning building.

The dead, all Negroes, included a 26-year-old mother and her five children.

Mrs. Johnetta Clark, 19, one of the injured, was the mother of the other two children who died.

The apartment is one of a half-block square unit of three-story brick buildings. It is in Cincinnati's Mt. Auburn district atop a hill overlooking the downtown area.

Firemen estimated damage to the building at $10,500.

Kingston Pays Tribute To Its War Dead Today

Tempered by crises in the Middle East and central Europe, Kingston paid tribute to its war dead this Veterans Day and planned another memorial service and observance at the municipal auditorium at 9 p. m.

The observance, under the Kingston Veterans Association, began at 11 a. m. when fire alarms sounded throughout the city and all street traffic was halted for one minute in respect to the dead of all wars as buglers sounded taps throughout the city.

A memorial service and dance is scheduled at the municipal auditorium tonight. There is no charge and the public is invited.

Mayor Frederick H. Stang and City Judge Raymond J. Mino will speak on the significance of the day which, by an act of Congress in 1954, replaced Armistice Day as the occasion on which to honor all living veterans and those who made the supreme sacrifice.

An orchestra, furnished through the courtesy of Local 215, American Federation of Musicians, will play for dancing. John McCullough will sing several selections during the memorial service and James M. Krom, secretary of the veterans association, will conduct the service.

The day, designated to "re-consecrate ourselves to the task of promoting an enduring peace so that the efforts of our veterans shall not have been in vain," was observed with special services in communities throughout the United States and in Washington, D. C., and Paris, France.

A Presidential wreath was laid at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery yesterday, the Associated Press reported.

Veterans Administrator Harvey V. Higley represented President Eisenhower at the ceremony as more than 2,000 persons bowed their heads in silent reverence during the sounding of "taps."

Film Star James Stewart, principal speaker at the tomb, called the ceremony a double tribute, to those who died and to those "who returned to serve their country again."

"No one desires lasting peace more than those who know war," added Stewart, a World War 2 bomber pilot and an air force reserve colonel.

The defense department announced meantime that the World War 1 Shrine will be expanded to honor an unknown soldier each from World War 2 and the Korean War. Tentative plans have been drawn to complete the change by Memorial Day 1958.

In Paris, meanwhile, a 61-year-old bugler last night fulfilled a World War 1 dream to return to France to play taps for his fallen comrades, according to the Associated Press.

By the flickering light of the Eternal Flame which guards France's unknown soldier, Hartley Edwards completed his pilgrimage from Denison, Tex.

He proudly raised the same bugle he played 37 years ago in ceremonies that moved such old (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Successful Test Reported for B58

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 12 (AP)—The United States' first super-sonic bomber, the B58 Hustler, made its initial flight here yesterday and the test pilot said the 38-minute hop was "very satisfying."

B. A. Erickson, chief test pilot for Convair, which built the delta-wing, super-secret plane, described the flight as a "reined-in demonstration."

The air force, in its announcement at Washington, did not disclose whether the bomber actually exceeded the speed of sound, which varies between 760 miles an hour at sea level and 670 m.p.h. at 35,000 feet.

Harry F. Sinclair, Oil Tycoon Dies

Pasadena, Calif., Nov. 12 (AP)—Harry F. Sinclair, who gave up a pharmacist's job for the more exciting life of oil prospector and later founded the Sinclair Oil Co., is dead at 80.

He died Saturday at his Flintridge home after an illness of four months.

Sinclair started on a shoe-string and was an oil millionaire before he was 35. He was a central figure in the teapot dome scandal of President Harding's administration.

In 1949 at the age of 72 he retired from active management of the Sinclair Co. and five years later as board chairman.

Sinclair was born at Wheeling, W. Va., July 16, 1876, was educated in the public schools at Independence, Kan., and took a (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Conference Scheduled Thursday

First Troops Are Due to Land Soon

United Nations, N. Y., Nov. 12 (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold announced today agreement had been reached with Egypt for the entry of the UN police force immediately. He said the first group would arrive there early this week.

Going to Cairo

Hammarskjold said he himself would leave by plane for Cairo tomorrow to be on hand for detailed discussions with the Egyptian government. He said he expected to reach the Egyptian capital Thursday and return to New York by Sunday.

He gave the following statement to a special news conference:

"Agreement on the arrival in Egypt of the United Nations force has been reached between the secretary-general and the Egyptian government. The first groups of the United Nations force will go to Egypt early this week."

To Inspect Area

"It is the intention of the secretary general to visit Cairo at the very first stage of the operation for discussions of details with the Egyptian government. He will also inspect the staging area for the United Nations force in Italy."

The first units of the UN force already are at a staging area at Capodichino Airport, near Naples, Italy. Some of the troops may leave for Egypt as early as tomorrow, Hammarskjold said.

To Talk With Burns

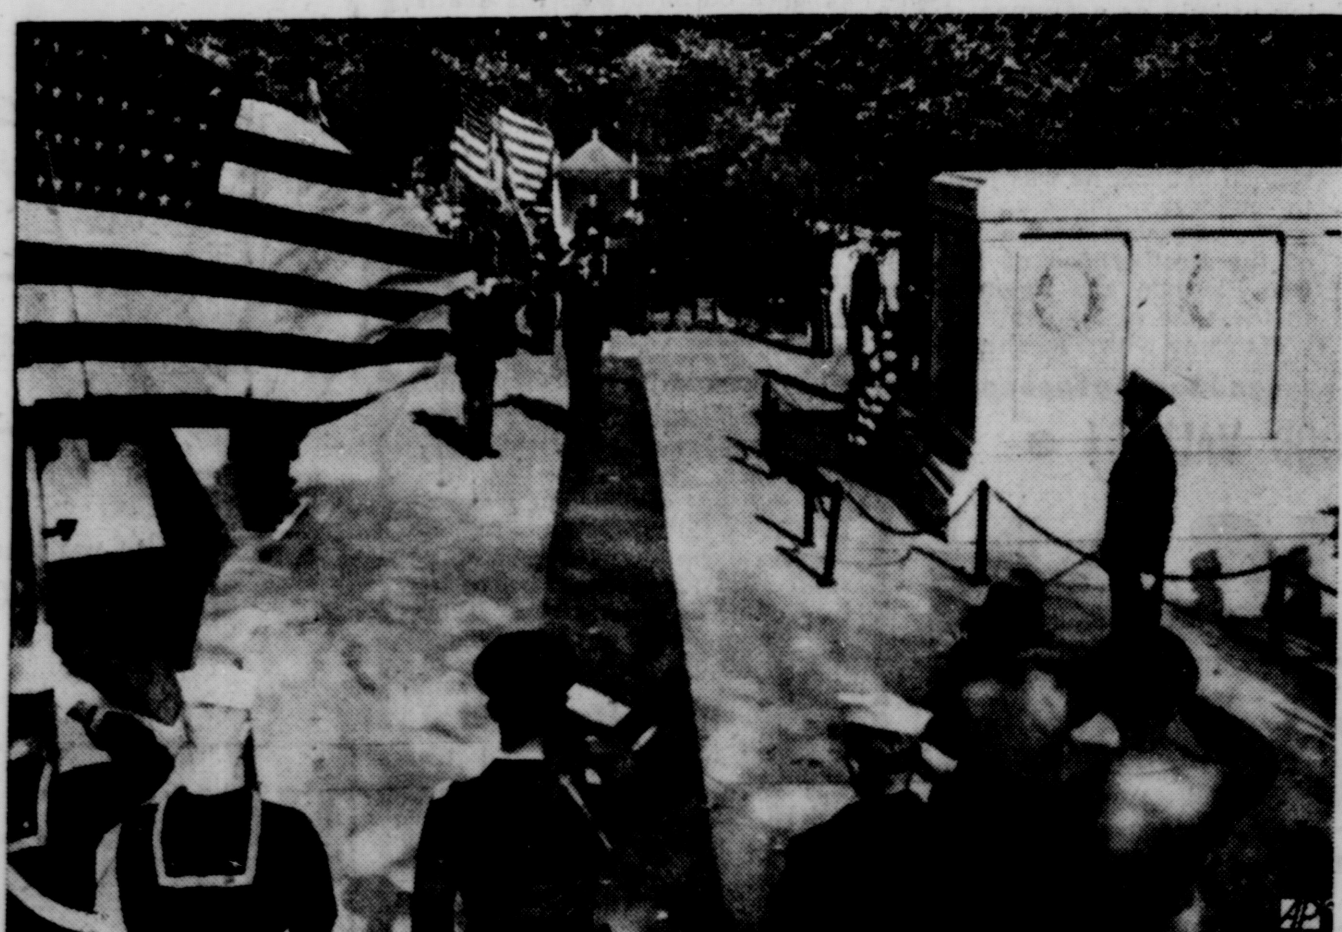

The secretary general said he wanted to visit the staging area as well as Egypt. The commander of the UN force, Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Canada, will meet him in Italy for consultations and then Burns will fly to New York for talks here.

Hammarskjold said the purpose of his own visit to the Egyptian battle area was "to see that no unnecessary loose ends" and left. He said he had no intention to confer with military leaders of the invading British, French and Israeli forces.

May go to Hungary

The secretary general also expressed a willingness to go to Hungary after his Cairo visit, if it appeared such a trip would be useful. He announced he was establishing two groups to deal with the Hungarian problem: one to investigate the Soviet interference in Hungarian affairs and the other to observe the situation on the scene.

The first group will be headed by Dr. Alberto Lleras of Colombia, former secretary general of the organization of American states. The observation group (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Marlboro Farmer One of 14 Killed in State on Weekend

A middle-aged farm laborer was killed early Sunday night when his car left Route 9W just south of Marlboro and smashed into an apple tree.

Highland state police said the man was Nick Green, a laborer employed by the McLaughlin Farm of Marlboro.

The mishap was one of 14 fatalities reported in the state over the weekend, 12 of which were highway crashes.

Mr. Green was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. W. B. Harris of Marlboro.

Coroner Francis J. McCordle has ordered an autopsy. His verdict is pending Troopers said Mr. Green was proceeding north on Route 9W about 7:10 p. m. when his 1940 sedan went off the west side of the highway and plunged into an apple tree.

His body was removed to the Tuthill Funeral Home, Marlboro.

The accident in which Mr. Green was killed was also the cause of a second minor two-car collision, Highland state police said.

A 1950 sedan operated by Hans Woerner, 29, Glendale, proceeding south on 9W, slowed down because of the accident and was struck in the rear by a 1952 (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4) charges of disclosing state secrets and denouncing agents of his office to the Russians. He has been in prison in West Germany since he slipped back across the Iron Curtain nearly a year ago.

Addressing the court today, John, now 47, spoke up defiantly as he told the judges not to worry about his "fragile" health but to go right on with the trial.

"My health is not important," he said, his face blanching. "If anyone here had any idea that psychic torment I had to endure during the 17 months with the Russians, they would not have confined me like a serious criminal."

"I have nothing to fear or else I would not stand here."

Speaking calmly, John recounted his personal history. He told how he became a member of the anti-Nazi underground in World War 2 and made a dramatic flight to Britain after the abortive attempt to assassinate Adolf Hitler. It was on the 10th anniversary of this day that John went into Soviet-occupied East Berlin.

With about 100 witnesses to be heard, his trial is expected to last a month.

soldiers as Gen. John J. Pershing and Marshal Ferdinand Foch.

The intervening years had left their mark on both bugle and bugler. But Edwards stood stiff and proud as he sounded the call that signals rest for tired soldiers.

A gentle rain during the long bugle saved embarrassed veterans an explanation for the moisture on their cheeks as the last notes echoed beneath the Arch of Triumph. About 500 American veterans and an honor guard of French airmen, soldiers and sailors stood at attention while Edwards played at the annual Armistice Day tribute of Americans living in Paris.

Earlier in the afternoon, Edwards also played taps at the cemetery at Compiegne.

The march up the floodlit Champs Elysees at the head of the American Legionnaires and a 30-piece U. S. Army band was the fulfillment of a long wish for Edwards. He last played beneath the arch at French Independence Day ceremonies July 14, 1919, when Paris literally exploded with a "victory" celebration.

Edwards was a member of the crack 50-man drum and bugle corps Gen. Pershing formed of veteran American soldiers. Marshal Foch was so impressed with the corps he invited them to come back some day.

Edwards doesn't know whether any other members of the corps have made the pilgrimage. But the French were glad Edwards came. His picture has been featured in many Paris newspapers and the Champs Elysees was lined with crowds cheering Edwards and his comrades.

F. W. Simmons, Freeman Employee Dies on Sunday
Frank W. Simmons, 59, of 183 Fairview avenue, a former railroad engineer, employed by The Freeman for four years, died here Sunday.

He joined The Freeman as a chauffeur in 1952 after being furloughed by the New York Central Railroad, following 33 years in the career he started on the old Ulster & Delaware Railroad.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ada B. Warren, of Phoenixia; a son, Warren Simmons of Hurley, advertising director of The Freeman, and a granddaughter, Valri Simmons.

Funeral at the parlors of A. Carr & Son, 1 Pearl street, Tuesday at 2 p. m. Burial in Hudler Cemetery, Mt. Tremper. Friends may call at the Carr chapel tonight between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Mr. Simmons started railroad in 1919 as a fireman on the Ulster & Delaware that transported vacationists to Catskill Mountain resorts.

When the New York Central Railroad took over the road as a branch in 1932, he was promoted to engineer.

Mr. Simmons was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers up to the time of his death.

Mother and Five

James Hassett said the stairwell served as though it had been a chimney and caused the flames to shoot upward through walls and stairways to the top floor where they then burst through the skylight.

The odor of smoke first was noticed by Mrs. Ruth Walker, who lives next door to the apartment where the fire occurred. She and her father, William Stokes, started a search of their apartment.

"Suddenly we heard terrific screams from the next door building," Mrs. Walker said. "My father ran down the street and pulled a fire alarm. Meanwhile, the screaming became louder."

"I can still hear those children screaming for someone to save them. Mrs. Clark jumped out and started screaming her babies were in the building. The screaming stopped in a few minutes."

The body of the dead woman was found in the front bedroom of her third-floor apartment. Her five children were on a bed and the floor of a combination bedroom and kitchen.

The other two children were found in a rear third-floor room. Firemen said all died of burns and suffocation.

Assistant Fire Chief Leo Kuhn said the fire apparently started at the foot of a flight of center steps in the basement. The bottom of the stair well was closed off from the rest of the basement with sheet metal.

"The stairway was a funnel for the blaze," Kuhn said. "The fire shot up the stairway, cutting off any escape for the occupants. At each floor the heat broke the glass from door transoms, spreading the flames into living quarters."

"When the skylight broke, it gave the flames the needed draft and the fire roared skyward."

Police listed the dead as:

Mrs. Edna Dyer, 26, and her five children, John, 10; Beverly, 8; Jocelyn, 5; Arlene, 6; and James, 2; and Terry Jane Clark, 5 and Larry Del Clark, 13 months.

Hungarian
bombers dropped bombs, huge Stalin tanks smashed through nationalist strongpoints and buildings were deliberately razed.

In the relentless Russian pursuit of the Nationalist remnants, rows of workers houses were shattered, a children's clinic was wiped out, hospitals were set afire. It seemed not a building in the city escaped the furious shower of Soviet bullets and shells. To wipe out a single rifleman, the Russians would turn a full barrage of fire from tanks, machine guns and automatic weapons, and destroy an entire building.

By the best available estimates, 20,000—or perhaps more—Hungarians died in the attempt to break the grip of the Soviet Union and Communism in their country. Russian dead were estimated at from 4,000 to 5,000. Western correspondents back from Budapest brought these figures, and said the wounded numbered 50,000, Russians and Hungarians.

Hospitals were so crowded that the litters carrying the wounded were directed to cellars, and garrets, all crammed with suffering humanity. In the Petoefi Hospital, one of Hungary's largest, doctors have been operating for two days without the aid of drugs. The wounded are dying in great numbers because of the lack of antibiotics.

The first intoxicating taste of victory and freedom for the Hungarians a week ago has turned to crushing defeat at the hands of 13 Russian divisions... an estimated 200,000 men.

New Paltz Man Held
J. Cossano, 20, of New Paltz, was arrested early this morning by Highland state police who charged him with illegal possession of a revolver. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Patsy Conforti of Highland, waived examination and was held for the grand jury. The arrest was by Cpl. Chicco, BCI, and Patrolman Ward Masters of the New Paltz Police Department.

Two Charged With Drunken Driving
Two persons were arrested by Highland state police on charges of driving while intoxicated over the weekend and each was committed to the Ulster county jail in lieu of $50 bail.

They were Mary E. Johnson, 57, Kerhonkson, and Gerard Boisvert, RD 4, Kingston.

She was arrested near New Paltz and Mr. Boisvert on Route 9W, town of Lloyd, troopers reported.

The summons are returnable before Justice of the Peace William Gruner of Highland.

Harry F. Sinclair,
pharmacy course at the University of Kansas.

Quit Drug Store
But he left the drug store to go prospecting, first in Kansas and then in Oklahoma. He became a lease broker and then an independent producer. In 1916 he established offices in New York city.

In 1927 and 1928 Sinclair was tried on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in the leasing of Teapot Dome, a U. S. Navy oil reserve in Wyoming. He was acquitted on this charge but did spend six and a half months in the District of Columbia jail in 1929 for contempt of court and contempt of the United States Senate.

Kept Up Career
This failed to stop his career. In 1937 he played a major role in organizing the present Richfield Oil Corp. And took over as chairman of the board of directors, a post he held until his retirement from Sinclair.

He had one of the leading racing stables of the 1920s. One of his horses, Zev, won the 1923 Kentucky Derby and set a record for the greatest amount won by one horse in a year up to that time—$272,008.

Sinclair leaves his widow, Elizabeth; a son, Harry F. Sinclair Jr.; Beverly Hills, Calif.; and a daughter, Mrs. David M'Divani, Los Angeles.

Rosary will be said at the family residence tomorrow and requiem Mass will be celebrated at St. Bede's Catholic Church, La Canada, Calif., at 10 a. m. Wednesday. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery, Los Angeles.

Five Persons Injured In Three-Car Accident

One driver was held on a charge of driving while intoxicated following a three-car accident Saturday afternoon, and five persons were injured slightly in a three-car mishap early Sunday evening, police reported.

David E. Shelton, 38, no address, was arrested Saturday at 12:40 p. m. on the charge of driving while intoxicated by Officers Thomas McGrane and Bruce Clarke as the result of a three-car collision at Broadway and Andrew street.

His case was adjourned in City Court today to permit him time to obtain counsel.

Police said Shelton was driving his 1950 sedan south on Broadway when he was in collision with a 1955 sedan, owned by Walter F. Birchall, 50, of 79 Plymouth Drive, North Glenhead, N. Y., going north on Broadway. The third vehicle involved was a 1954 sedan owned by Floyd W. Flint, 62, of 274 Albany avenue, headed south on Broadway.

The Shelton car was damaged on the left front fender, the Birchall car on the left front fender and rear doors, and the Flint vehicle was damaged on the entire left side, police reported.

There were no injuries reported, police said.

A three-car accident Sunday at 7:11 p. m. at St. James street and Albany avenue resulted in injuries to five persons.

Injured were Raymond Fuchs, 35, of 156 Wall street, who suffered injuries to both legs, cuts and bruises; Sharon Fuchs, 7, who had several teeth knocked out and suffered a face cut; Edith Fuchs, 31, and Richard Fuchs, 5, who suffered shock, and Gordon Fitzgerald, 52, of 104 Roosevelt avenue, who was injured about the nose and suffered face cuts. The injured were treated by a physician.

Officers Myer Levy and Frank Monte, who investigated, said Mr. Fuchs was driving a 1955 sedan, owned by Morris Fuchs and Co., of 199 Wall street, New York city. The officers said he was headed north on Albany avenue and stopped for a traffic sign at the corner of East St. James street when he was struck by a 1956 sedan, owned by Valkenburg—Fitzgerald, Inc., of 662 Broadway, and operated by Mr.

Former Kingstonian Texas Leader In Business, Educational Fields

By DICK MCCARTHY
Freeman Staff Writer

Texas provincialism may be credited as all-encompassing, but residents of the Lone Star state will have to make one concession in the case of a former Kingston resident whose ambition, ingenuity and resourcefulness provide one of its greatest success stories.

Paul R. Haas, 41, son of Frederick J., and the late Amanda Lange Haas, of 47 Third avenue, is a resident of Corpus Christi whose saga in American industry mirrors true Horatio Alger tradition.

Mr. Haas, whose father retired in 1946 after 48 years as a clerk for the Railway Express Agency in this city, is a brother of Mrs. Howard Kelder of 48 Third avenue.

Heads School Board

A vice president and treasurer of a large Texas oil and gas company, Mr. Haas is one of the state's industrial giants and a civic leader with few peers, devoting many hours to his community despite a rigorous business schedule.

Mr. Haas was named president of the Corpus Christi school board Oct. 19. The magnitude of this office alone is evidenced by the city's 175,000 population, 30,000 students and 1,400 school employees.

If this were not enough exertion on an already-crowded schedule, he is a director of the First State Bank of Corpus Christi, finance chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, Texas Society of Public Accountants, the American Institute of Accountants, and recently served as chairman of a very successful Community Chest drive.

But there are still more hours for Mr. Haas. He is a past elder of the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church, Corpus Christi, and now serves as chairman of a building committee which aims to raise $350,000 for a Sunday school addition.

Starts at $15 Salary

This abounding energy has carried Mr. Haas in good stead from a $15-a-week accountant on Wall Street, New York city, to a business executive extraordinary.

His father, who left Saturday for his annual winter visit at his son's home, is quick to point, with pardonable pride, to this business eminence as proof positive "you don't have to know someone to become successful but merely need the drive."

This ladder of success found its first rung when Mr. Haas began his education at School

PAUL R. HAAS

FREDERICK J. HAAS
Visiting His Son

No. 4 in this city. He was graduated in 1932 and attended Rider College, Trenton, N. J., which then had a two-year curriculum. He was graduated at the age of 19, after specializing in the public accounting field.

He took a position with Arthur Anderson Co., international accounting firm, in New York city. Because of his extreme youthfulness the munificent sum of $15 a week was his first wage.

Opportunity Knocks

In 1937, his employer opened an office in Houston, Texas. Mr. Haas was one of two men who administered the office. The land of sagebrush and tumbleweed now posed new vistas for him.

During the next four years as a senior accountant with the Anderson company, Mr. Haas handled audits for all types of industries in Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. In the summer months he did graduate work in accounting at the University of Texas and received his CPA rating from the state of Texas in 1939.

He became interested in the gas and oil industry while handling audits for a number of oil and gas companies.

It was about this time he first met the late Robert T. Wilson, a brother of Charles E. Wilson, U. S. secretary of defense, of whom he is a personal friend.

Becomes Part-Owner

He was employed with the LaGloria Oil and Gas Co., of Corpus Christi, as an accountant by the late Mr. Wilson. Shortly thereafter he was made secretary to the president and subsequently he and two other men purchased the company early in 1954.

Charles E. Wilson was board chairman of the company until his resignation in January, 1953.

Mr. Haas is now vice president and treasurer of the company, one of the largest in the state which, among other products, provides natural gas fed into the cross-country pipeline, providing natural gas for consumers in the east.

His zeal and ambition were quickly recognized and his administrative ability prompted his selection to the Corpus Christi board of education in 1951. He was named vice president of the board in 1954.

KHS Honor Student

Education has been a forte of Mr. Haas since his Kingston High School days when he was an honor student. He was a member of the first editorial staff of Dame Rumor, high school newspaper, sang with the Glee Club, played violin in the high school orchestra and was active in dramatics.

During his high school days he was also an active member of the Hi-Y organization. In 1932, he was one of the winners in the New York State George Washington Bicentennial Commission Essay and Oratorical Contest. He was awarded a trip to Washington, D. C., and a visit with President Hoover at the White House.

"He was always good at making speeches," his father commented with paternal favor.

Selected by Governor

Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas selected Mr. Haas as a representative to a national education conference in Washington in 1955. He and Gov. Shivers are intimate friends.

Although he has never entered political life, the opportunity was availed him last year when a group in Corpus Christi tried to prevail upon him to seek the mayoralty office in that city.

He declined the offer but only because he finally realized his spare time had become expendable.

Mr. Haas' father said he was anxious to make the plane trip to Texas today for his annual winter sojourn with his son. He usually visits for six months, as he has for the past 10 years, "because I love the weather down there." Mrs. Haas died in June, 1934.

With recreational time at a premium, Mr. Haas still finds time for duck hunting and golf, his father said. He is also a member of the Corpus Christi Country Club.

His recreation is crowded into a busy schedule which includes plane trips for the corporation in Texas and Louisiana and frequent flights to New York, Chicago and Detroit. The company owns its private plane.

Mr. Haas is married to the former Mary Diederick, of Carteret, N. J. They are the parents of two daughters, Rheta, 18, a student at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass., Rene, 9, who attends grammar school in Corpus Christi, and a son, Raymond, 13, a high school student there.

The family strongly favors the Texas city as a place in which to live, "just about the nicest place in the world." They reside at 315 Catalina place, Corpus Christi.

Texans may add another boast to their long list. Mr. Haas' decision to settle in their state was a good one for them!

Fire Vols Auxiliary To Hold Yule Luncheon

Tillson, Nov. 10—The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Tillson Volunteer Fire Company was held Wednesday afternoon, at the firehall with 18 members present. Mrs. Russell Douglas, president, presided at the meeting.

On December 19, the auxiliary will hold a luncheon at 12 noon for members of the auxiliary. Christmas gifts will be exchanged and secret pals revealed. Each member attending is requested to bring a dish of food.

The auxiliary will sponsor the annual Christmas party for Tillson Volunteer Fire Company members, the auxiliary, and children of members Saturday, Dec. 22.

A committee was appointed to purchase toys for the forthcoming Christmas party.

Fire Company Responds To Large Brush Fire

Tillson, Nov. 10—The Tillson Volunteer Fire Company responded to an alarm Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock to extinguish a grass and brush fire on the Hardenburg property in back of the Tillson School. A call was sent to Rosendale where the Tillson Fire Company tank truck is housed, and Rosendale immediately sent the truck to the scene. They also assisted in putting out the fire. It was estimated by Lieut. James Hicks of the Tillson company, that the burned area was in excess of one acre.

Tillson, Nov. 10—The photography class of the Adult Education program will meet Tuesday at 7:30 o'clock in Tillson School.

The last two sessions have been held at the Photo Workshop, Kingston, where such phases of photography as lighting, shooting pictures, developing and printing have been studied. Students in the course had the privilege of using professional equipment and developed and printed pictures they had taken in the studio.

Further classes are planned to take place in the studio as well as the school. Instructors of the class is David Fletcher of the Photo Workshop.

Teenage Dance

Tillson, Nov. 10—The Tillson teenagers will sponsor a barn dance featuring round dancing to the music of Earl Kilmer and his orchestra at the Tillson School gymnasium Saturday, Nov. 17. Preceding the dance, an amateur show will be held from 8 p. m. to 9 p. m. Tickets are now on sale.

Insurance Official See Loan Tightening

St. Louis, Nov. 12 (AP)—A life insurance executive said today a lot more people will have to save a lot more money before it will become easier to obtain loans, including loans for buying homes.

Robert B. Patrick, financial vice president of the Bankers Life Co. of Des Moines, Iowa, said the Federal Reserve Board has been unjustly charged with bringing about the current tight money market.

Patrick's remarks were before a convention session of the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards.

He said an increase in the supply of money "would only raise prices, especially on things in short supply, including labor." "Of course," he said, "the Federal Reserve Board has the power to increase the lending capacity of the banking system. But it is inconceivable that a responsible Federal Reserve Board would do so under present circumstances."

Nurse's Body Found

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 12 (AP)—The body of Mrs. Isabelle M. Miles, 56, a registered nurse, was found in her cellar last night by her son, John. Police said they were investigating to determine whether bruises on her arms and back had been inflicted in a struggle or a fall.

Owego IBM Plant To Be Larger Than Planned

Owego, Nov. 12 (AP)—International Business Machines Corp. plans to construct a larger airborne computer laboratory here than was originally planned.

New estimates call for a cost of $21,276,000 and a work force of 3,000, compared with previous figures of $12,000,000 and 2,500 workers.

IBM expects to begin operations with 350 employees in part of the laboratory in December. The facility will produce advanced bombing and navigation systems for the air force.

The Office of Defense Mobilization said Saturday that it had issued a certificate of necessity for the expansion.

The federal action permits a tax write off of 45 per cent of the expansion cost in five years instead of the usual 20-25 years.

Faulty Parents

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—A national youth leader said today American parents operate on a "double standard, unwilling to subscribe to the same moral and spiritual goals they set for their children." Label A. Katz of New Orleans also blamed what he called the "excessive permissiveness" of American parents for a major part of juvenile crimes and waywardness. Katz, chairman of the B'nai B'rith Youth Commission, prepared his address for the annual convention of B'nai B'rith here.

Introducing New U.S. Senators

Chapman Revercomb

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 12 (AP)—When West Virginia went Republican last Tuesday for the first time since 1928, Chapman Revercomb's long wait to return to the Senate was over. He made it on his third try.

Revercomb is a silver-haired, 61-year-old Charleston lawyer who has an oratorical voice and knows how—and when—to use it. He gained the label of a "conservative" while serving as senator from 1942 to 1948, though his opponents preferred to call him an isolationist.

Father in Politics

Born at Covington, Va., Revercomb spent much of his boyhood working on his father's farm. The senior Revercomb was for several years the only Republican to hold a seat in the Virginia State Senate.

Young Revercomb won honors in debating and oratory at Washington and Lee University and was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School.

He practiced law in Virginia for four years, then moved to Charleston in 1922, hung out his shingle and settled down to raise a family.

It wasn't long before he became active in politics. He and a handful of other men formed the Young Republican League of West Virginia. While he was its president in 1936, he ran unsuccessfully in the primary for the nomination for governor.

Won in Upset

In 1942 he was nominated to the Senate. Opposing him was Matthew M. Neely, a Democratic vote-getter since 1910 and then mid-way in a governor's term. In a dramatic upset, Revercomb won.

The two met again in 1948, when Revercomb's term was up. This time Neely won.

Revercomb tried again in 1952. He was defeated in the general election by Sen. Harley M. Kilgore, Democrat.

Last February, Kilgore died unexpectedly. Revercomb once more was nominated to fill out the remaining two years of Kilgore's term.

Last week he defeated Gov. William C. Marland, the youngest man then ever to be elected governor of the state. Marland, whose statehouse term expires in January, ran into serious intra-party contention during the year which obviously hurt him at the polls.

Urged GOP Voice

Revercomb campaigned largely as a champion of the Eisenhower administration, although he did criticize Marland's administration as governor on several occasions. He urged that West Virginia have a Republican voice in the Senate during a national Republican administration.

His critics, however, contended that Revercomb's conservative record in the Senate in the '40s indicated that he could not be counted on to follow Eisenhower's leadership.

West Virginia is predominately Democratic on the registration books.

The Republicans carried the state for Eisenhower and elected a governor and two congressmen, in addition to sending Revercomb back to the Senate. Presently those state-elected offices are held by Democrats, and Adlai Stevenson carried West Virginia in 1952.

Revercomb's colleague in the Senate will be Neely.

Conference Set On Tower Removal

North Bergen, N. J., Nov. 12 (AP)—Mayor Angelo Sarubbi and other township officials confer with representatives of station WOR-TV tomorrow in renewed efforts to have the rest of a huge television tower torn down entirely.

Most of the 3,000 or so residents evacuated from the area last Thursday were back in their homes today.

They were ordered out after a plane struck the unused 810-foot tower and crashed into an apartment building, killing four persons and starting a fire. Officials feared the tower might topple.

Workers using cables and winches bent down two sections of the latticework on Friday and Saturday and then lashed the six tons of dangling steel to the remaining 350-feet of tower still looming over the community.

Officials then assured the township's displaced persons it was safe to return home.

Testimonial Will Honor Legion's Department Heads

A testimonial dinner honoring Department Commander Martin Mc Kneally and Department President Royene Missall of the American Legion will be held through the auspices of Ulster County American Legion and Legion Auxiliary Saturday, Nov. 24, in Governor Clinton Hotel, according to Clarence Brown, general chairman.

John J. Mc Court of Marlborough will serve as toastmaster. Mr. Mc Court, Newburgh and Marlborough attorney is past commander of the County Legion and past commander of Charles Vieby Post, Marlborough.

Tickets Available

The dinner will be served in the Crystal Room at 7:15 p. m. Tickets may be obtained from the local post commanders or auxiliary presidents. No reservations will be accepted after Monday, Nov. 19.

Mrs. Pearl Smith of Marlborough and Mrs. Betty Sanford of Port Ewen have charge of the floral arrangements for the tables. Mrs. Edna Brannigan of New Paltz will serve as pianist and Peter Yeaple will entertain on the accordion. Commander William Hanley of Kingston Post 150 will be in charge of colors.

Rates May Violate Act

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—The Interior Department says that rates in a 1952 federal power contract with the Reynolds Metals Co. may violate a 1944 federal act. Secretary of Interior Seaton said Saturday that his department was proposing that a new rate schedule for a southwestern power area be applicable to Reynolds. Seaton said the Federal Power Commission would be asked to review the 30-year contract, which was approved by Oscar Chapman when he was interior secretary in the Truman administration.

Daughter of Vermont Attorney Is Missing

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 12 (AP)—Police throughout the nation today were alerted to look for the 18-year-old daughter of the Vermont U. S. attorney and a 19-year-old Colorado State Reformatory parolee.

U. S. Atty. Louis G. Whitcomb asked state police to broadcast a nationwide alert for his daughter, Priscilla, 18, a Smith College sophomore reported missing by the Northampton, Mass., college Friday. Whitcomb told Vermont state police his brown-eyed, brunette daughter was "believed to be in the company of Richard S. Thatcher, 19, of Evanston, Ill., on parole from Colorado State Reformatory at Buena Vista, Colo."

Police said Thatcher allegedly served a sentence for auto theft, but details on his background were not available immediately.

THE SAVER'S INNING

Lately in economic America there has been a great hullabaloo about the rising costs of money. Bankers have been pictured as villains in bringing this about. After all, they are the custodians of billions upon billions of dollars.

The consequences of higher interest rates have become a favorite theme with many financial writers. They have stressed how the added costs add burdens to borrowers. Mortgage rates have gone up. Corporations with big expansion programs have had to pay more.

And everywhere plans calling for economic growth have been shelved because of these conditions. The country has become so accustomed to cheap money that any deviation from this seems to throw a wrench into the machinery.

There is a certain amount of truth in what has been said thus far. But there is another story to tell. And I think it is a most important story.

From Thrifty Workers

Where should the billions of dollars come from that will assure the proper economic growth and development of America? Why from the thrifty workers in the country who, looking ahead to a self-reliant financial retirement, save money and with it open savings bank accounts, buy insurance contracts, purchase homes and become partners in our business enterprises.

What have we lost on these good people for two decades:

1. Steadily rising living costs.
2. Bigger and bigger taxes.
3. Declining interest rates.

Far too little has been said in recent years about the financial affairs of millions of America's best citizens who, in less than 20 years, have had their living costs go up 200, 300, 400 per cent while the income from their hard-earned savings has gone down 50 per cent.

If the 4 per cent interest rate paid in 1936 to thrifty depositors by the savings banks where I carry accounts had kept pace with living costs, today interest on savings accounts would be around 12 per cent and not 3 per cent.

One important reason why money is getting more expensive is that high living costs and big taxes have prevented people from saving what they would like to. And if savings in our country are not sufficiently large to finance growth and expansion, then borrowers go to banks, and more often than not, this brings on inflation.

Cheap Money Unfair

Too long, cheap money has been a champion in America. It is unfair to millions of hard-working people here who want to save for the rainy day, to force them to pay high prices for almost everything, and then to give them a very small return on the money they diligently save.

For nearly two decades, money borrowers have been privileged characters. Now the tide is turning. Perhaps a decade is being ushered in where thrift and saving will again be justly rewarded.

The capital that comes from accumulated savings best develops a strong economy. I do not think enough attention in recent years has been paid to the cultivation of an environment out of which savings come. Today, America's tax bill of federal, state and local levels is around $100,000,000,000 a year! National income is about $350,000,000,000. Thus, anyone can see that taxes drain off billions of potential savings and leave the country with too little productive capital.

Politicians spending this tax money should understand what is going on here. They should cut every unnecessary expense, thus making tax reduction possible and putting in motion the machinery of thrift, saving and investment.

The Forum

This question has come to me in a dozen different forms: "As a voter, what can I do to improve these conditions outlined above?"

Welcome Refugees

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 12 (AP)—The Endicott Johnson Corp., says it would welcome refugees from Hungary as employees. The shoe-manufacturing company already has many refugees among approximately 18,000 employees here, in Johnson City and Endicott. The statement of company policy followed an earlier announcement by President Eisenhower that the United States would admit as soon as possible 5,000 refugees from the Hungarian revolution crushed by Russian troops.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

There was mention of drinking water in the "New Grand Hotel" as written up in the 1880's. Their booklet said it came from the Diamond Spring and was pure. Very often one hears that our own Kingston city water tastes better than drinking waters in other communities.

In fact, I have heard some folks say, "I would buy a house out there but I do not like the drinking water."

Our water not only tastes good but is good. I have before me a Chamber of Commerce booklet given to me by the Vetoskie family before they went to Florida. This booklet is about 25 years old and one item reads: "The water supply here is the very best obtained from streams in the Catskills, fed with the purest of water from living springs."

This is one reason for the low death rate we have and why people live to a ripe old age here. I did not originate those words nor can I verify the above statement. Our drinking water is famous. New York city drinks water from our mountains and I do hope we will always keep it just as tasty and pure as it always was. They tell me in some communities, one has to take the tap water and either boil it and make it into tea or coffee or keep it iced, or flavor it somehow, otherwise it is simply unfit to drink as it comes out of the faucet. I do hope this will never happen to Kingston's water.

I do not know who compiled the history as given in this booklet but no doubt he did some research to come to such conclusions as: The history of Kingston divides itself into some 16 periods, extending from the building of the fort at Ponckhockie in 1615 to the incorporation of the city on March 29th, 1872.

During the period from 1615 to 1872, "Kingston was twice destroyed by fire; first on June 7th, 1663, by the Esopus Indians, the second time by the British under Gen. John Vaughn, October 16th, 1777.

It is said, "in retaliation of Kingston having given shelter to the Constitutional Convention, the Senate, and Assembly, and having been the capital of the State at which its first constitutional Governor, George Clinton, was inaugurated on the preceding July 30th.

This event took place at the Court House in Kingston, which stood on the same site as that occupied by the present Court House. The Senate met on September 1 in the building on Clinton avenue near North Front street, which is still called the Senate House. The first Constitution of the State was accepted here April 20, 1777. After the Revolutionary War, the sturdy and undaunted patriots of this section set out to rehabilitate and rebuild the town of Kingston.

It is said, that Kingston missed being the capital of both the State and all the States for various reasons. I will not give the reasons at this time, as history has recorded them time and time again.

Also it was said, that at one time Kingston was to be the site of a college or university, as our two Academies were well known to bring children of famous families here to study. Kingston may never be the capital as things stand now, but this section perhaps one day in the near future will have to have a University or college. Why must our students trot off to some little village or far off places or even to New York unless they want to. There should be an institution of higher learning open to all high school graduates desiring to use its facilities either as day students or night students with a chance to earn a degree.

Dog Knows Horn, Saves Two Boys

Hewitt, N. J., Nov. 12 (AP)—A dog who recognized the horn on the family car is credited with leading two boys to safety after they spent a night lost in the Ramapo hills.

James Harrington Jr., 11, of Greenwood Lake, N. Y., and his uncle, Robert Lane, of New York city, who is a year younger, were the objects of an all-night search after they failed to return from a hike on Saturday.

Dressed only in light clothing, they covered themselves with leaves to keep warm as their parents and about 50 policemen, firemen and volunteers hunted for them with bloodhounds, loudspeakers, helicopters and a plane.

With them was Jimmy's dog, Ginger.

"It was too cold to sleep and we kept hearing them calling us on loudspeakers," Jimmy said yesterday after their discovery. "We didn't feel too bad, though, because we knew Ginger could take us out. She did it once last year, and she tried to in the night, but we couldn't keep up with her. Each time she lost us she came back."

Yesterday morning, Ginger led the boys to a ridge where they could see Jimmy's father, James Harrington Sr., 36, driving along a road.

"I'm sure she recognized the horn of my car," the elder Harrington said, "because I often blow it when I'm a mile from home and she runs out to meet me."

The boys were picked up, shivering so hard they could hardly speak, some 24 hours after they started their hike. Once warmed up and fed, they appeared none the worse for the ordeal.

Did Ginger have any special training. "No," said Jimmy's mother. "It's just that she grew up with the children and is very fond of them."

Too many eggs in cookie dough may make it tough unless there is a corresponding amount of fat added.

Noted Actor Slated To Appear at IBM Country Club

ALAN MOWBRAY

Alan Mowbray will entertain members of the IBM Study Club at the monthly meeting, Thursday, in Poughkeepsie. Mr. Mowbray's topic, "Behind the Make-up," has proven to be an exceptionally interesting and humorous review of his many years as an actor both in films and on the legitimate stage. In addition, he is an accomplished playwright and writer for magazines, and international newspapers.

The evening's meeting includes dinner in the IBM Country Club, Poughkeepsie, at 7 p. m. For members and guests unable to attend the dinner, the entertainment commences at 8:30 p. m. Tickets may be secured at the door for this portion of the program.

Miriam Havens Weds Bernard Smith

MRS. BERNARD SMITH

(Tom Reynolds photo)

Miss Miriam Havens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Havens of 123 Greenkill avenue, became the bride of Bernard Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Smith of Kingston, Saturday, Nov. 3 at 10 a. m. in St. John's Church in Stony Hollow.

Officiating was the Rev. John J. O'Reilly.

Mrs. A. A. Champanier was at the organ.

The church was decorated with white pompons and gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a gown of rose point lace posed over a bodice, long sleeves tapered to a point at the wrists, and a scalloped "V" neckline. The bouffant skirt featured a panel of sequin embroidered lace and tiers of nylon tulle and terminated in a circular chapel length train. A bridal cap of matching lace, trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins secured the finger tip French illusion veil.

The gowns worn by the bridesmaids were identical in styling to that of the honor attendant. They carried nosegays of pink roses.

Edward Dunn of West Hurley was the best man for his brother-in-law. Serving as ushers were Frank Sheeley and John Fitzsimmons.

A reception was given at the Capri in Port Ewen for approximately 100 guests.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed as a secretary by IBM in Kingston.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Kingston High School and New York Technical Institute of New Jersey. He served in the U. S. Air Force and is employed as a first class commercial representative for Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp.

For her wedding trip to Virginia the bride wore a red sheath dress with a beige fitted coat and a corsage of white roses.

The couple will reside in Morgan Hill.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Miss Edith Havens, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore a gown of sun yellow nylon chiffon styled with a shirred and fitted bodice, a bateau neckline and tiny sleeves. The full flowing skirt was floor length and she wore a half hat of iridescent sequins with a circular tulle flirtation veil. Miss Havens carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Miss Arlene Smith and Mrs. Edward Dunn, sisters of the bridegroom were the bridesmaids.

MOTHER-IN-LAW SITUATION

"About a year ago I married a man who had been married before. His wife died about five years ago. He is a wonderful person and we are very happy. However, I have a problem with his mother. She lives next door to us and comes over quite often during the day to see me. Her main topic of conversation when she is here is her son's first wife. She is forever telling me what a wonderful person she was, how well she kept house, etc. This is really beginning to get me down. I think she is very rude to keep bringing up the subject of my husband's first wife in my presence, or am I just being over-sensitive? Will you please tell me what I can do about this very distressing situation?"

The best thing to do is to tell your husband about it and let him tell her. If he doesn't care to, be frank with your mother-in-law and tell her how you feel.

Who For Godmother

Dear Mrs. Post: I just recently had my first baby. I asked a cousin of my husband to be the baby's godmother. I have heard, through a friend, that the person who was my maid of honor feels slighted because she wasn't asked to fill this position. She is under the impression that the maid of honor is supposed to be godmother to the first child. Is there such a rule?

Answer: No, there is no such rule.

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the correct position of the left hand while eating? "A" says it is correct to rest it on the table and "B" says that it should always be in the lap when not in use. What do you say?

Answer: If you are eating with your right hand, for any length of time, you leave the left one in your lap. In short moments, you rest it against the edge of the table.

What should the attendants and guests wear at the wedding reception? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, her leaflet E-6, "What to Wear at Wedding Receptions," describes clothes for all weddings. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. HIGHLAND NEWS

Highland, Nov. 10—Mrs. Hubert Elting spent Wednesday night with friends in Wallkill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn have purchased the property of Mrs. Anna Erichsen on the Chodkee Lake road.

At the meeting of the firemen Tuesday night they petitioned the Town Board to enforce the parking rules along the street so that cars are not parked in front of hydrants. At a recent call to extinguish a fire, the fire truck could not get close to the building involved, due to a parked car, it was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gruner moved Tuesday from their home on Main street to the former Meredith Turner house on Maple avenue.

The science department of the local Central School now owns a new microscope presented by Frank Marx Sr. While in Germany this summer, Mr. Marx wrote to ask what kind of scientific instrument he might bring back as a gift to the school.

Upon receipt of a suggestion, Mr. Marx went to the Himmler Lens Company and purchased a microscope for secondary school purposes.

Mr. Ott of the science department said that it is a much finer instrument than he would have had the courage to ask the Board of Education to purchase, and that with the standard lenses it will produce magnification of 900 diameters. Mr. Marx has offered to supply lenses for much greater magnification if they are desired. He reported that many of the advanced students are allowed to use the instrument and that it is being put to good use.

The Board of Education appreciates the gift of Mr. Marx as a real contribution to the department, he said. A suitable inscription will be put on the carrying case of the microscope.

The local library will be closed Monday in observance of Veteran's Day. The opening hours of the library are Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday 2 to 5 o'clock, Tuesday and Friday evenings 7 to 9 o'clock.

Court Nilan, Catholic Daughters hold their meeting Tuesday at 8 o'clock at the Legion Home.

Plans are being made for a card party Saturday, Nov. 17. Mrs. Lillian Smith and Mrs. Josephine La Susa are chairmen. Grand Regent Mrs. Mary Diorio will preside for the meeting Tuesday.

A child health clinic will be held at the Health Center Thursday and the meeting of the local nursing committee will be held November 28.

The dinner meeting of the Lions Club Monday night at Hotel DiPrima was attended by 30 members with President Harold Borean conducting the meeting. They voted not to underwrite the holiday lighting this year. A square dance was arranged for Saturday, Nov. 24 in the gym of the high school with music by the Ridge Runners and Robert Relyea as chairman. The date of the annual football dinner was set Monday, Dec. 3 at Hotel DiPrima with a speaker from the United States Military Academy, West Point. Frank Mandy was appointed chairman. The sum of $5 was voted to the Girl Scouts. A film was shown on electronics data processing machines. The Board of directors will meet Friday, Nov. 23 at the Legion Home.

Dynamite Sticks Strewn in Bronx

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Eight boys scattered dozens of dynamite sticks through a four-block area of the Bronx yesterday after they gave up trying to ignite the explosive.

Police and firemen roped off the area and then collected 73 sticks of the dynamite from back yards, under cars and in a sewer. That was believed to account for all of those taken.

The boys, all under 16, said they found the explosives in a vacant lot and called police.

A fire department explosives expert said the sticks contained a paste-powder type of nitroglycerine. They would have blown up if the boys had set fire to them in a confined area.

Police said it was "just pure dumb luck" that the youngsters attempted to ignite the dynamite outdoors, where they failed.

No police action was taken against the boys.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Joseph A. Carbone of the Bronx asked officials of the Yonkers (N. Y.) Contracting Co. to appear at a fire department hearing tomorrow to explain why the dynamite was left unattended in the construction shack over the weekend.

The shack was being used as a powder magazine for use on the cross-Bronx Expressway project.

Warmer Winters?

The earth's orbit is such that the sun is 3,000,000 miles closer in January than in July. If the sun's rays did not strike the northern hemisphere more obliquely then, winter would be warmer than summer.

Special Tutors Give Instruction To Handicapped

There are nine physically handicapped children in the Kingston city school system and six of them confined to their homes, receive the same advantages of an education as their classmates through home tutoring by qualified teachers provided by the school district.

The New York State Education Law defines a physically handicapped child as one "under 21 years of age who by reason of a physical defect or infirmity, whether congenital or acquired by accident, injury or disease, is totally or partially incapacitated for education."

Underwrites Change

The law further provides aid to the school district furnishing special education to such children by underwriting a portion of the expense involved.

In these cases the teacher goes to the home each regular school day and spends one, one-and-half or two hours with the pupil depending upon whether the student is at elementary, junior high or high school level. Thus they are prepared to meet the same standards as those maintained in the regular public schools.

The methods of teaching vary in each case and must be adapted to meet each child's individual handicap. For instance, in a case where a child cannot use his hands, all work must necessarily be oral, even the examinations, in which the student dictates the answers to the teacher who records them on paper.

The other children are well enough to attend public school but require special taxi transportation which is furnished by the Board of Education.

Another Service

Another service that is occasionally approved under certain circumstances is one furnished in cooperation with the New York Telephone Company. A two-way communication is provided between the classroom and the child's bedroom by which the child can hear recitations and explanations in the classroom and also recite himself and be heard in the classroom. Although at the present time Kingston has no cases of this kind, it has had in past years. "Much can be done," Robert

GETTING DAILY INSTRUCTION—Because of disability, Frank Storm, of 66 Catskill avenue, is unable to get out to school but he still receives daily instruction from Miss Inez Satterlee. (Freeman photo).

S. McDonald, administrative assistant, explains "for the physically handicapped child today to provide him with an education commensurate with that of other children. Each case requires its own analysis to determine which type of service is most adaptable to the individual boy or girl and in many, many cases some means of obtaining an education can be found."

The services described in this article have helped a number of local children to a new interest in life and are giving them the opportunity of becoming well-adjusted citizens.

Body Is Found

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 12 (AP)—The body of Dan Sherman, 78, missing since Thursday, was found Saturday at the bottom of a 10-foot gorge. There was no immediate verdict from Tompkins county Coroner Dr. Ralph Low. Police said they believed Sherman had fallen.

Armstrong Rocks Beacon With 4 TDs as Maroon Wins, 42-0

Soph Sensation Sparks Kingston To 7th Straight

BY SAM ANZALONE
(Freeman Sports Staff)
Hobie Armstrong, Kingston High school's bread-and-butter back, put on another dazzling offensive show Saturday as the Maroons continued on their undefeated ways and won their seventh game of the season. This time the victim was Beacon High by a whopping 42-0 tally on the Dutchess gridiron. Armstrong, the sophomore flash who everyone is talking about, enjoyed the greatest day of his infant grid career, dashing for four touchdowns as Kingston waltzed to its easiest win this year. The victory removed the next-to-last obstacle in the path of an unbeaten campaign for the Maroons who have a showdown date with Newburgh Free Academy Thanksgiving Day. It also matched the most wins in one year for Coach Bill Burke who took over the reins in 1946. In 1950, Burke's club won seven and tied one. Armstrong just couldn't be contained by the listless Beaconites who were the weakest team

Kingston has faced this year. He broke away for scoring runs of 54, 24 and 22 yards and capped the sensational afternoon with an 80 yard run after intercepting a pass.

Cragan, Engle Score
Bill Cragan and Marv Engle tallied the other TDs as Kingston racked up its top total points so far. Cragan booted four extra points in five tries while the other two tallies came on a third period safety.

Armstrong scored twice in the second period after Cragan launched the Kingston scoring by running 48 yards with an intercepted pass. Hobbie's first dash was along the sidelines as Beacon was completely fooled by the deception in the KHS backfield. The 24-yard journey was through the arms of several defenders who were just overpowered by the 15-year-old youth who hits like a locomotive.

In the fourth period, Hobbie warded off three or four would-be tacklers and with his incredible speed eased to paydirt from the 22. The score on the interception came later on and was made possible by the tremendous downfield blocking. On the Beacon 40, Armstrong picked up five blockers who escorted him the rest of the way.

Kingston didn't warm to the scoring task until the second period when Cragan broke away on the pretty interception. Maybe the cold 30 degree temperature was responsible for the slow start, but once the Maroon juggernaut got rolling it was something beautiful to watch.

20-0 at Halftime
By halftime the outcome of the game was decided as KHS led 20-0. The only question left was whether Kingston could pile up a bigger margin than Newburgh's 33-0 total.

Armstrong's last TD answered that question and just to add a

John Ferraro Rolls 742 Series in HVBL

Eclipses 703 Held by Broskie; Joneses Hit 3206

It might have been the 1,000th ball that Johnny Ferraro has drilled over the past two decades.

But it certainly was the right one for Saturday, Nov. 10. The "new grip" suggested his brother, Buster, helped The Ace to a new Hudson Valley League seasonal record of 742.

Operating on alleys 7 and 8 at the Bowldrome, Ferraro reeled off successive slams of 268, 215 and 259 to help Jones Dairy rack up 3206 for a new team standard.

WEISHAUP cracks 703 FOR PIZZERIA

Larry Weishaupt climbed over the "700" mark with steady salvos of 232, 225 and 244 for a 701 count as Tony's Pizzeria routed Walden Peppys, 3-0, with a 3078 series.

Weishaupt's 701 rates as the third highest triple in the league this season, being out-ranked only by Harold Broskie's 703 and John Ferraro's 743.

Ferraro's 742 eclipsed the old mark of 703 held by Harold Broskie and Joneses' 3206 wiped off the books the 3173 held by Middletown Merchants. The Dairymen achieved their new record with games of 1085, 1031 and 1090 to sweep a trio from GI Joe's Express in a local duel. Jim Amendola backed Ferraro with a 652 series on games of 235, 214 and 203. Chris Gallo furnished 235-208-642, Jerry Oster 237-588 and Jack Ferraro 205-582. Ken Joseph unloaded 212-208-202-622 and Dick Howard 223-202-595 for GI Joe's.

Forsts Lose Two
Middletown Merchants dropped the first game to Forst Forcasts, 923-894, but rallied with 1016 and 1019 to take the next two from the league leaders on the Middletown drives.

Art Koepfel drilled 632, with 245-204, and Ralph Smith shot 225-603 for the Merchants. Buster Ferraro rammed 201-233-629 for Forsts.

The Pizzeria had team slams of 1027, 1005 and 1046 against Walden. Harold Broskie shot 217-209-612, George Shufeldt 215-598, Charlie Manfro 215-201-596 and Phil Versace 204-571. Frank Brink anchored the Peppys with 205-249-631.

Bruins Gain First Place

By The Associated Press
Their best string of victories in more than a decade has boosted the Boston Bruins into first place in the National Hockey League.

The Bruins made it six in a row over the week end with a two-game sweep of the defending league and Stanley Cup champions, the Montreal Canadiens. A 3-2 decision last (Sunday) night followed Saturday's 3-1 victory and left the Canadiens wondering if they're ever going to beat Boston this season. They've dropped a fourth straight so far.

Boston needed last night's game to hold its one-point lead over Detroit, which handed hapless Chicago still another loss, 3-1, in the only other game scheduled.

The Bruins, with an 8-3-3 record, have 19 points in the standings to 18 for Detroit, which has won eight, lost two and tied two in playing two fewer games than Boston.

Two goals by Cal Gardner and three assists by Doug Mohns were coupled with Terry Sawchuk's brilliant work in the nets to keep a capacity crowd of 13,909 cheering at Boston Garden. Gardner's second goal broke a 1-1 tie in the third period and put the Bruins ahead to stay. Sawchuk made 30 saves on the hard-skating Canadiens, who still have Gene McNeil filling in for their ailing goalie, Jacques Plante.

Lorne Ferguson also was a two-goal star as Detroit handed

Newburgh Wins 25-6 Over MHS

Newburgh Free Academy, looking ahead to its Thanksgiving Day brawl with Kingston, walloped Middletown, 25-6, Saturday at Wilson Field to draw into a first place tie with the Maroons in the DUSO League. Both teams have 3-0 records in the circuit.

The Goldbacks' talented backfield array of Zeke McCurry, Al Beccaccio and Billy Cotton accounted for all the points. The Middies lone touchdown was tallied by Don Bergamo on a six yard run in the second period.

McCurry Scores

McCurry got NFA rolling in the first period as he plunged 3 yards to paydirt. Later in the same quarter, Beccaccio broke away on a 15 yard scoring jaunt. In the second period, Gordie Bertholf whirled 88 yards to set up the score for Bergamo. The six-pointer came just before halftime.

McCurry dashed 12 yards in the third period for TD No. 3.

The Black Hawks their eleventh defeat in 14 games.

Ticket Deadline For Jones Dinner

Deadline for purchasing tickets for the American Legion's testimonial dinner to Addison Jones is tonight, Meyer Kaplan has announced. Tickets may be purchased at the American Legion building, the Recreation Department and Tommy Maines' Sport Shop. District Attorney Howard C. St. John will be the principal speaker.

Cotton booted the only extra point of the game.

Cotton capped the success with a touchdown after taking a pass from Beccaccio. The play covered 10 yards.

Ground Game

Newburgh stuck mostly to the ground, grinding out 295 yards to 115 for Middletown. The Goldbacks gained just 30 yards through the air to only four for their victims.

The victory was NFA's sixth in seven games and fifth straight. The Middies are winless in seven starts.

Clips Petersen Record of 842

Buster Ferraro, who suggested the new bowling grip that gave his brother, John, a 742 series Saturday night, used it Sunday afternoon to a 902 slam in the Ferraro Singles Classic.

Buster reeled off games of 223, 235, 245 and 199 to eclipse the first-day mark of 842 rolled by Larry Petersen Jr.

The big series enabled Buster to score a 4-0 decision over Jerry Oster, who hit 744 without a "200" set.

Lavery Shoots 838

Tom Bilyeu of Ellenville blanked Al J. Oster, 4-0, with 222-770. Whitey Crispell (733) won a forfeit from Larry Petersen Jr., who is leaving for the Pacific coast in a few days.

In other matches, Tom Carlino (787) won from Jim Amendola (766), 3-1; Jim Lavery of Poughkeepsie, posted high series of 838, with 202-245-206, to split with Chris Gallo (791).

John Ferraro (738) and Vern Van Dusen (684) split their match. Joe Cashara (722) scored a 3-1 win over Cappilino (687). Jack Ferraro (782) scored 3-1 over Angie Fondino (750).

Weishaupt Hits 279 for Record

Charlie Manfro boosted his Mid-Hudson Singles Classic series record from 811 to 861 Sunday, en route to a 2-2 split with Eddie Heins at the Central Recs.

Larry Weishaupt exploded for a 279 single for a new high in that department. George Shufeldt, who led with 256 last week, posted 276.

Weishaupt won 3-1 from Frank Spada (723), while Shufeldt split with Ken Joseph (789). Phil Versace (790) and Frank Leskie (703) tied at 2-2, as did Ed Heins (815) and Manfro. Harold Broskie (816) downed Don Sickler 781 by 3-1. Chris Robinson (708) split with Ed Auclair (671). Frank Grimaldi (737) was a 3-1 winner over Dick Howard (713).

Weishaupt fired four strikes in a row, then left a pin and struck out for his 279. In his 276 game, Shufeldt led off with a 7-pin 'tap', then fired nine in a row and struck until the tenth when he filled with seven.

The results:
Joseph (2) ... 191 229 178 191 789
Shufeldt (2) ... 182 156 183 276 797 little more tinsel to the win. Enright romped 25 yards to paydirt for the final tally after Pete Blanchan broke through to block a fourth down Beacon punt. Blanchan was the same player who was directly responsible for the safety. The big center crashed through and blocked Bob Galletta's attempted punt midway through the third period and the ball rolled out of the end zone. The two points marked the only scoring of the period.

Sterling Defense

The sterling Kingston line repulsed every offensive maneuver of Beacon. In fact, they had the Beaconites so terrorized that some of the home team's players were almost begging to come out of the game.

Beacon's deepest move was to the KHS 31 in the third period. On a couple of other occasions they penetrated enemy zone, but never seriously threatened to score.

Kingston fumbled the ball six times, but Beacon couldn't capitalize on any of the mistakes. Never did they make two first downs in a row and were held to just five during the course of the game.

Kingston will rest this weekend in preparation for the Turkey Day clash with NFA. The contest is set for 11 a. m. at Newburgh.

Giants Gain Eastern Lead

By JIM KENSIL
The Associated Press

The franchise shoppers reportedly hanging around the nation's capital these days apparently have spotted a good pro football buy.

Washington, like Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, has been the scene of reports of franchise offers from a Louisville, Ky., group, and yesterday (Sunday) the Redskins undoubtedly upped the price tag with a tough, but not, 18-17 victory over the previously unbeaten Detroit Lions.

The result, coupled with the Chicago Bears' easy 38-14 romp over the visiting Green Bay Packers, left the Lions tied with the Bears for the National Football League's western conference lead. Both have 6-1 records with five weekends to go.

Giants Grab Lead

While the race was being knotted in the west, the New York Giants were breaking a first-place eastern tie with the Chicago Cardinals by smothering the Cards' trumpeted offense 23-10 in Yankee Stadium and averaging an early-season 35-27 loss at Comiskey Park.

That put the New Yorkers at 6-1 and the Cards at 5-2, but looming before the Giants are games on successive Sundays at Washington, with the Bears at New York and again with the Redskins at New York.

The Giants, performing before a New York NFL record of 62,410 stopped the Cards' air-ground team of Lamar McHan and Ollie Matson while cutting loose Frank Gifford, Alex Webster and Ken McElroy for scores in the first quarter. The Cards didn't get their TD until the final ten seconds.

Gifford ran for 68 yards and caught six passes for 122 yards and one touchdown.

Sam Baker's 27-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining enabled the Washington Redskins giant killers to shatter the Detroit Lions' winning streak at six straight.

6 Straight for Bears

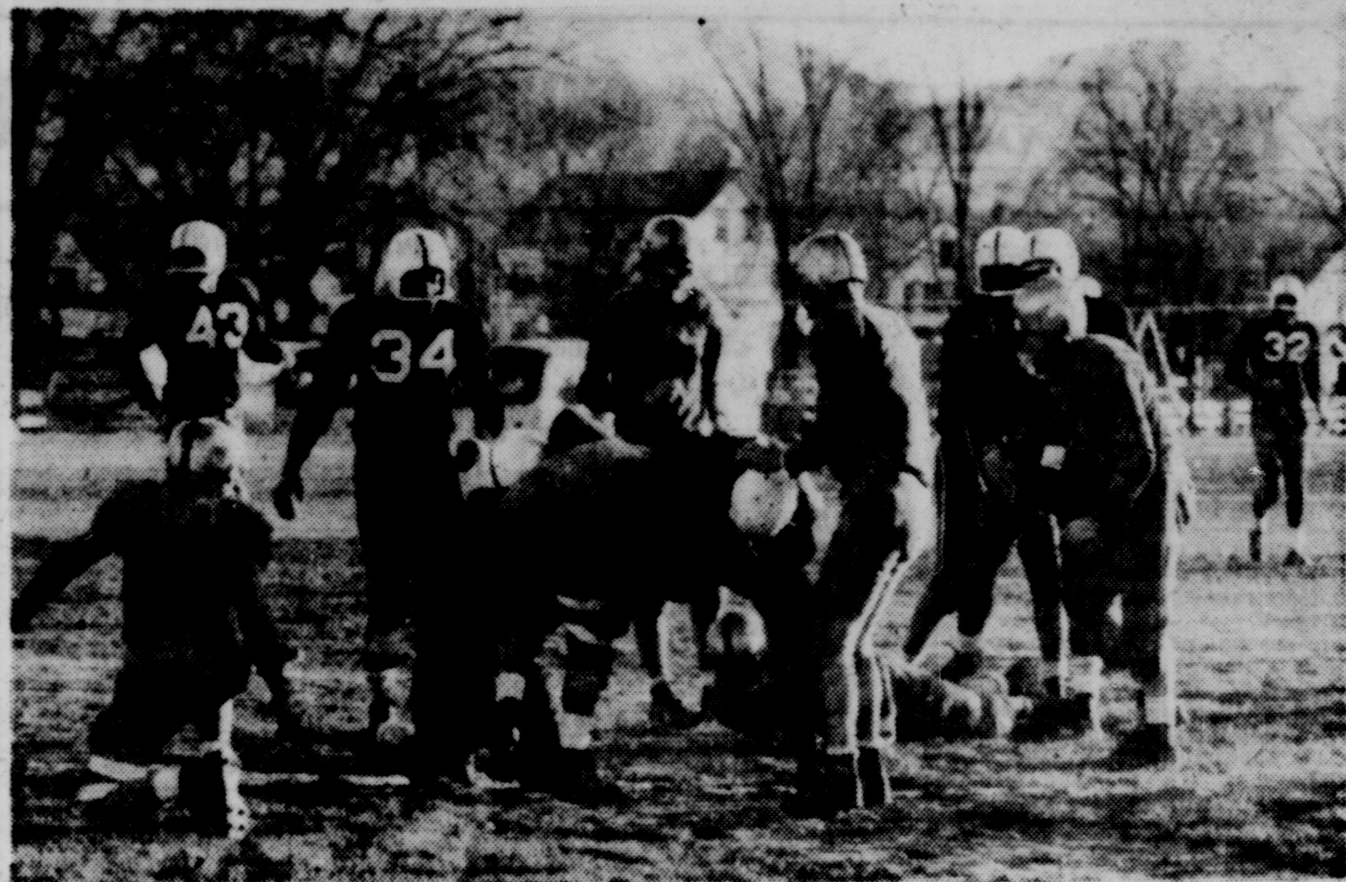

Capitalizing on pass plays of 70 and 69 yards and a 50-yard interception, the Chicago Bears notched their sixth straight victory, 38-14, at the expense of the Green Bay Packers.

Quarterback Billy Wade piloted the Los Angeles Rams to a 30-6 victory over the San Francisco 49ers before 69,828 in the Memorial Coliseum at Los Angeles. Wade passed for two touchdowns, 4 yards to Bob Boyd and 38 yards to Elroy Hirsch as the Rams moved out of the Western Division cellar.

Moore Stars

A 70-yard touchdown sprint by rookie Lenny Moore and a 43-yard gallop by Alan (The Horse) helped the Baltimore Colts plunge the Cleveland Browns deeper into the NFL cellar, with a 21-7 victory. The Browns' first pass of the game, a 27-yarder from Babe Parilli to Ray Renfro gave Cleveland its only TD.

Hank Burnine, last year's top collegiate pass receiver, latched onto a scoring of Bobby Thomason aerials, pair one TD and setting up another as the Philadelphia Eagles beat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 14-7. Burnine, released by the New York Giants, made a sensational overhead grab of a Thomason pass in the first quarter for a 35-yard scoring play, later completed a 52-yard play to the Pittsburgh five.

Warriors Miss Gola

By The Associated Press

Soldier Tom Gola may be the reason for the early-season woes of the Philadelphia Warriors.

National Basketball Assn. champions a year ago, the Warriors are currently in the Eastern Division cellar. But Gola is in the employ of Uncle Sam this year and without his backcourt talents, the Warriors are minus an additional double-figure scorer, a good rebound and a deft ballhandler.

This was evident last night as Philadelphia bowed to the New York Knickerbockers, 106-95. The three Warrior backcourt men totaled only 19 points and the Knick point total indicated a somewhat porous Philadelphia defense.

In other games, Boston re-

Warriors Miss Gola

tained first place in the east by downing Syracuse 94-83; Rochester defeated Minneapolis 94-82, and the leading western club, St. Louis, was easily outscored by Ft. Wayne, 96-81.

For New York, Harry Gallatin had the highest scoring output for a Knick this season, hitting 32 points from the pivot. Ray

Bud Smith Paces Win For Wimpys

Bud Smith's 34 points paced Wimpys' No. 1 to a 100-83 victory over the High Falls Firemen in a YMCA 'A' league basketball tilt Saturday.

In the first game of the doubleheader, the Ramblers squeezed out a 65-62 win over Wimpys' No. 2 in a 'B' tussle.

Smith was ably supported by Jack Houghtaling and Beaky Smith who rimmed 24 and 22, respectively. Jake Smith and Joe Martin chipped in with 10 apiece.

Schoonmaker Hits 32

Cliff Schoonmaker threw in 32 points for the firemen in a losing cause. Werner Wustrau added 25, Mort Gazlay 12 and Don Walsh 10 to round out the double figure scoring.

The Ramblers won a squeaker as Charlie Marable hooped 20, Al Short 14, Nick Nagele 11 and G. Smith 10. No more than five points separated the clubs after the first quarter.

Ron Brandt paced everyone with 28 and Joe Schneider drilled 16.

Meeting Wednesday

'Y' Secretary Lou Shafer announced that an organizational meeting for the winter 'A' and 'B' leagues is slated for Wednesday at 7:15 at the 'Y'. Managers or representatives of teams who are interested in joining the league are urged to be on hand. Each representative must bring a team roster of at least eight players for the purpose of checking duplication. The complete organization of the league is expected to result from the session.

College Teams Lineup For Bowls About Ready

BY ED CORRIGAN
(The Associated Press)

While nothing is definitely settled—and, as they say, a football takes funny bounces—the post-season bowl picture was clarified somewhat today with at least a half dozen teams consulting timetables south or west.

With only two weeks to go in the regular season, here is how the four major bowl games could line up:

Rose—Oregon State vs. Iowa.
Orange—Colorado vs. Clemson.
Sugar—Tennessee vs. Georgia Tech.

Cotton—Texas A and M vs. Syracuse.
Oregon State has virtually assured itself of the Pacific Coast Conference Rose Bowl nomination. It has lost only one game, that to Southern California which is ineligible along with UCLA and Washington for breaking conference rules.

After its uphill 20-19 victory over Stanford Saturday, Oregon State has only two opponents left, weakening Idaho and Oregon. Assuming the Beavers get the Rose Bowl bid, it will mark only the second time they have appeared there since the game was started in 1902.

By a strange twist of fate, they actually didn't get to Pasadena, the site of the game, in 1942, the year of their appearance, the war forced the game to be played in Durham, N. C., where they beat Duke.

Iowa is the favorite to represent the Big Ten in the Rose Bowl. The Hawkeyes can wrap it up by beating Ohio State Saturday, no easy task in view of the fact the Buckeyes have won 17 straight league games, including a 35-14 triumph over Indiana last week.

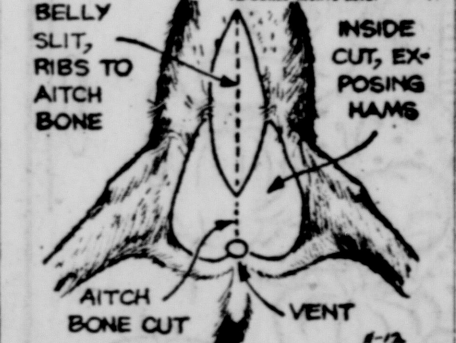

Iowa Wins

Iowa whipped Minnesota, 7-0, Saturday. The only other two teams in the running are Michigan and Minnesota. Each has two loop games left and one loss for each would send Iowa westward no matter how its game with Ohio State comes out.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

By Hal Sharp

EASY SPLITTING OF DEER'S AITCH BONE

AFTER CUTTING AROUND VENT AND TYING OFF INTESTINES, THEN SLITTING BELLY, COMES CUTTING THE AITCH BONE TO REMOVE ENTRAILS. MOST HUNTERS HACK AT THE BONE UNTIL IT IS CHOPPED THROUGH. THERE'S AN EASIER, NEATER WAY TO CUT THIS BONE. WHEN CUTTING THE CROTCH TO EXPOSE HAMS, DOWN TO AITCH BONE, TRY TO CUT THROUGH AT THE EXACT CENTER. THEN PROBE WITH KNIFE POINT TO FIND TINY RIDGE-JOINT OF BONE. CAREFULLY INSERT POINT IN RIDGE. AT THE RIGHT SPOT, A PENKNIPE WILL DO!

Here is how the other three major bowls stack up:

ORANGE—Colorado, which probably will finish second to Oklahoma in the big seven race, is No. 1 in line. The Buffs were tied by Missouri Saturday, 14-14, which was a blow. But the Orange Bowl folks want them. Oklahoma, which racked up its 37th straight victory when it licked Iowa State, 44-0, is ineligible, having played in the last Orange Bowl game.

Missouri still has a chance, if you'd call it that. All the Tigers have to do is lick Oklahoma, the No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll, this Saturday.

Clemson Good Bet

Clemson, which also was held to a 6-6 standoff by Maryland Saturday, is the best of the Atlantic Coast Conference, which provides the other Orange Bowl team, has to offer at the moment. The Tigers, unbeaten but twice tied, have one league game left, that against much-beaten Virginia.

SUGAR—Tennessee is almost certain to be the host team, wind up undefeated and win the Southeastern Conference championship—a fine triple. The Vols licked Georgia Tech, 6-0 Saturday. That was the big one for both schools, which were right behind Oklahoma in the national rankings.

These two teams played a tie last year, which means that in two games, just six points separate them. The Sugar Bowl would like to stage a rematch, even though the second-place team (in this case Georgia Tech) usually goes to the Cotton Bowl.

Rematch Looms

Since Louisiana segregation laws eliminate any northern teams, the chances of a rematch are good, indeed.

COTTON—Texas A and M has cut a steady swath through the Southwest Conference, capped by its 33-7 victory over Southern Methodist Saturday and has only Rice and Texas blocking its path to its first league title in 15 years.

But the Aggies are the NCAA doghouse for recruiting violations and their fate will be decided at a meeting in Detroit this week. The conference already has pardoned the school.

Syracuse, the class of the east, appears to have the inside track as the visiting team.

Boardman-DeMarco Go Slated for Tonight

By JACK HAND

The Associated Press

Larry Boardman, a young lightweight from Connecticut who feasts on champions, old or current, gets another crack at a former title-holder Monday in Philadelphia where he boxes Paddy DeMarco of New York.

Boardman already has beaten ex-champ Wallace (Bud) Smith and Jimmy Carter and owns a non-title decision over Sandy Saddler, the feather king. Rated the hottest thing in the division with a No. 1 ranking by the National Boxing Association, Boardman is expected to take care of DeMarco.

It is the first important fight in Philadelphia in many months.

Sandy vs. Sullivan

Randy Sandy of New York and John L. Sullivan, a willing gent from Preston, England, will do their stuff for the St. Nicholas Arena fans in New York on another Monday show, seen on TV (Dumont) (10:30 p. m. EST).

Sandy's latest on his "comeback" was a decision over Al Andrews at Las Vegas, Oct. 29. Sullivan was stopped by Rory Cahoun in eight rounds at Cleveland, Oct. 12.

Lane Set

Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., and Frankie Ryff of New York, two men rated among the top 10 lightweight, met at Wednesday (ABC-TV) at Miami.

Lane upset Ralph Dupas in New Orleans in mid-summer. He whipped Ludwig Lightburn, Sept. 19 in his latest start.

Ryff, knocked out by Boardman at Madison Square Garden, June 1, started a comeback at the age of 24 by outpointing Frankie Ippolito Oct. 22. Ryff has lost only two, a decision to Dupas and the knockout by Boardman.

Search Continues

New York, Nov. 12 (P)—Naval aircraft and ships, searching for a missing seaplane with 10 men aboard, expected today to contact a Spanish freighter which reported sighting a white flare in the Atlantic. The freighter, the S.S. Astro, said it saw the flare some 300 miles northwest of Bermuda. There were no details. The missing patrol plane, based at Bermuda, was last heard from Friday night. That same night a Liberian freighter, the Captain Lyras, reported seeing a plane going down in flames about 400 miles north of Bermuda. An around-the-clock search continued over the weekend.

Swart Completes Exam For Building Inspector

William Hill Swart, of 247 Clifton avenue, was one of three candidates who successfully completed the open competitive Civil Service examination for building inspector.

Martin F. Kelly, secretary of the Kingston Civil Service Commission, announced that Mr. Swart received an earned rating of 85.22.

Three candidates took the examination, although four applicants were approved. Mr. Kelly said, and one applicant failed to appear for the examination.

Adult Education At Kerhonkson Starts Nov. 19

The fall semester of the Adult Education program in the Kerhonkson-Accord area will begin Monday, Nov. 19, according to Roland A. Riegel, acting supervising principal of Rondout Valley Central School.

Classes will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the main high school building in Kerhonkson.

The following courses will be offered:

1. Beginning and intermediate sewing, instructor, Mrs. Arthur Crose, room 4.
2. Beginning and intermediate ceramics, instructor, Mrs. Harry Gorman, room 9.
3. Beginning typing, instructor, Mrs. Marion Traver, room 12.

May Choose Other Night

All courses will meet Monday, Nov. 19 and will continue for a nine week period ending Monday, Jan. 28. Individual groups, however, may elect a night other than Monday and continue the courses longer or shorter than the nine weeks if it is agreeable by all concerned. At least 12 people must enroll in a course and an average attendance of at least eight people must be maintained in order to insure that a course will continue.

The fact that three courses are being offered does not mean that these are the only ones that can be held. If individuals desire, additional courses may be set up. Adults falling into this classification should contact the Kerhonkson School office for additional information or a member of the Adult Education Advisory Committee which consists of the following: Mrs. Frances Sherman, Frank Kelder, Mrs. Siegfried Abraham, Mrs. Wilfred Kopp, Mrs. David Pomerantz, Mrs. Frances McCauley, Mrs. Morty Bogartz and Mrs. William Amann.

There will be a small registration fee for all courses. Supplies and materials used by each adult will have to be purchased by the individual.

Driver Education cannot be offered in the Kerhonkson program, however, interested adults should contact Morton Blanchard, acting elementary principal of the Central District at Marlletown School, Stone Ridge. It will be possible to enroll in Driver Education under the Adult Education program operating at the Marlletown school.

The Rondout Valley board of education issues an invitation to all area residents to participate in the Kerhonkson Adult Education program.

Orders Fires Probed

New York, Nov. 12 (P)—Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cavanaugh, Jr., has ordered "fine-toothed comb" investigations of all future fires in stores and other commercial establishments.

The move was prompted by a 26 per cent rise this year in the number of such fires, compared with a general 20 per cent decrease since 1954 in the number of fires in the city. The decrease has been 40 per cent in some categories.

Foreign Aid Big Problem in 1957 For Eisenhower

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

Washington, Nov. 12 (P)—One of President Eisenhower's biggest problems in 1957 will be foreign aid. How much and for whom? The turmoil in eastern Europe and the Middle East has heads spinning here.

Congress, increasingly critical this year of the amount of foreign aid Eisenhower asked, what it does next year depends on the whole world picture which right now is uncertain.

Most Confused Picture

It is perhaps the most confused picture faced by an American President since the aid program began.

Since July 1, 1945, this government has shovelled out more than 31 billion dollars in help, over 14½ billions of it military, to foreign countries, including allies and neutrals.

The purpose under Presidents Truman and Eisenhower has been plain enough: To bolster allies, win friends, and help the neutrals and underdeveloped countries for whom the Communists are bidding hard.

But this year the critical mood in Congress showed itself in several ways:

1. Besides cutting one billion dollars off the $4,759,975,000 Eisenhower asked, Congress banned use of the new funds for military aid to Yugoslavia, although aid funds allotted from previous years still could be used.
2. A Senate committee, a House committee, and a special committee appointed by Eisenhower are all now busy investigating foreign aid and will be for months.

Disruptive: Knowland

Both Truman and Eisenhower thought it money well spent to help Yugoslavia which, although still Communist, broke away from Russian control. Congress chafed on the idea but still voted economic and military aid until this year.

Then it said no new military aid. Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) led this fight. As Senate Republican leader, Knowland might have been expected to fight for, not against, Eisenhower's programs.

But Knowland argued that aid to a Communist dictatorship is "disruptive to our whole foreign policy."

Eisenhower thought otherwise. He, like Truman, felt that helping one satellite which broke with Moscow might encourage others to do the same. He still thinks so. And Congress may have to wrestle with this idea all over again.

Not Clear Yet

On Oct. 24, after Poland appeared to have broken at least a little away from Moscow, Eisenhower indicated American readiness to help the Poles or any other satellite people who asserted independence of Moscow and wanted American aid. Right now it isn't clear just how much of a break Poland made.

For a while it also seemed the Hungarians had not only cut loose from Moscow but had overthrown their Communist masters. Then the Russians moved in and slaughtered them. But before this happened Eisenhower offered the Hungarians 20 million dollars in food and other supplies.

Perhaps the picture will be further muddled by 1957 by other revolts, although that sounds unlikely after what happened to Hungary.

Problem for U. S.

But Eisenhower has other problems on his hands. For example: The Middle East and Africa—which have received over four billion dollars in American help—are inflamed at the British-French-Israeli invasions of Egypt. Russia is trying to move in as the Arab's friend and benefactor.

It will take months to find out whether more American help in the Middle East will be needed or wasted. By then the Russians may have a firm foothold there.

Meanwhile the French-British split with this country—their attack on Egypt—may encourage American isolationists to demand an end to aid for them and everybody else. It seems unlikely congress will listen to that.

Women Double Lead

Washington, Nov. 12 (P)—Women have more than doubled their numerical lead over men in this country in the last six years. The Census Bureau estimated yesterday that females now outnumber males by 1,381,000, compared with 600,000 in 1950. There was a time, back in the 1940s, when there were more men than women, but the proportion of men has been dropping steadily since 1910, the bureau said. It gave two principal reasons—the mortality rate for men is higher, and as immigration declines there are more women than men coming to this country to live. Under 24 years of age, there still are more males than females, but the women take over at that point and become more numerous in the higher age groups.

Says They'll Become Law

Philadelphia, Nov. 12 (P)—Adlai Stevenson's campaign manager predicts that many of the defeated Democratic presidential candidate's suggestions during the recent campaign will become law. James A. Finnegan said in an interview yesterday that he believes Stevenson's campaign "established a blueprint" for the solution of many national and international issues. Among the candidate's proposals that Finnegan said he expects to see adopted are those dealing with the aged, health, natural resources, H-bomb tests and the draft.
